DROWNED IN THE ROANOKE

A Colporteur and his Driver Lose Their Lives by the Swamping of a Ferry-Boat.

(Special Telegram to the NEWS.)

WELDON, N. C., Jan. 11th, 1878.

3:50 P. M.—A colporteur, whose name is supposed to be J. L. Brower, and his driver, a colored boy, were drowned in attempting to cross the Roanoke at the ferry here to-day. The current being very rapid, the boat was swamped, and the colored boy, together with the horse and buggy, sank at once.

The colporteur was carried down by the current, and was last seen in the rapids below. The ferryman made a very narrow escape, being caught at the railroad bridge as the current swept him down.

A box of books and a trunk with clothing marked J. L. Brower, were caught and brought ashore below. C.

TURCO-RUSSIAN WAR.

LONDON, Jan. 11.—The Agence Russe denies the truth of the statement that the Porte has already accepted a preliminary basis of peace and says: The Porte however, is aware that the acceptance of these bases must precede the conclusion of the armistice.

VIENNA, Jan. 11.—Political Correspondences, special from Constantinople states Suleiman Pasha has been relieved of his command and summoned to Constantinople.

BUCHAREST, Jan. 11.—The correspondent of the Times says: The battalions captured in Shipka Pass, will probably number between 300 and 400 men each. The victory resulted from a combined movement by Generals Radetzky and Skobeleff, through Shipka and Trajan Passes, respectively.

CETTINJE, Jan. 11.—Antivari surrendered unconditionally to the Montenegrins yesterday.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 11.—The armistice has not yet been arranged. The Porte has received the Russian answer to the Turkish communication, proposing an armistice, intimating that the negotiations must be conducted on a basis of eventual peace conditional. The Porte has not yet replied to this.

ATHENS, Jan. 11.—It is asserted here that the insurrection in Macedonia is imminent.

FORTY-FIFTH CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—The Committee of the House agreed to report the Steamboat Bill, in accordance with the views of the National Board of Steam Navigation recently in session here. The House is wrangling over the scope of investigation which its committee may have.

The Senate Committee on Privileges and Elections are hearing the female ballot seekers.

HOUSE—The proceedings opened with voting on the resolution reported from the Committee of Ways and Means, directing the committees to investigate the several departments of the Government. The original resolution was carried by the Democrats by a strict party vote. The rest of the day was taken up with private bills, none of which, however, were passed. The House then adjourned until Monday.

More Swindling.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—Superintendent Walling was notified last evening that the Porte has already accepted a preliminary basis of peace and says: The Porte however, is aware that the acceptance of these bases must precede the conclusion of the armistice.

Walling was notified last evening that Henry M. Cutting, a Cotton Broker, had swindled John Collins, of Brooklyn, out of $25,000 worth of cotton by buying it under the pretense of sending it to North Adams, Mass., then putting it in a bonded ware house, drawing $8,000 and running away. Cutter owed Collins $50,000 before this, and $1,000 to a carman for cartage. Cutters office was at 131 Pearl street.

Re-election of Presidents.

MADRID, Jan. 10.—De Barzanaltano and Herrera were re-elected Presidents of the Senate and Deputies respectively.

VERSAILLES, Jan. 10.—Grevy has been re-elected President of the Deputies by 335 votes out a total of 346. Many Deputies of the right abstained from voting.

M. M. Bethenaut, Brison and Rameace, Republicans, and Count Dufort De Civerac, legitimist, were elected Vice Presidents. Duc D' Audiffret Pasquier was re-elected President of the Senate by 172 votes against 61 blanks. The former Vice Presidents were elected.

Of Course They Know.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—The most reliable gossip regarding North Carolina is that Gov. Vance will tender the Supreme Judgeship of the State to Senator Merrimon and appoint Hon. J. M Leach for Merrimon's unexpired term. in consideration of his services in the campaign of '76. W. T. Dortch is also prominently mentioned as Merrimon's successor.

The Famine in China.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11.—The steamer Belgic has arrived. The advices from Hong Kong to December 14 and Shanghai, December 15th, states that there is no abatement of the ravages of the famine in the Northern provinces. Vast district being completely depopulated and there is no possible hope of relief this year or perhaps next. The United States Minister had returned from Shanghai to Peking. Mr. Bradford, late Vice Consul-General at Shanghai, was still in jail.

Death of Liver Eating Johnson.

BISMARC, D. T., Jan. 9.—"Liver-eating Johnson," the terror of the strolling Indians in the Upper Missouri river country, is reported as killed. He once ate the liver of an Indian against whom he had a revenge, and from that incident got his name. His pastime was killing Indians, and he is credited with a bloody roll of the slain victims of his hatred larger than any other man who lived on the frontier.

Bland's Bill Condemned.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—At a largely attended meeting at the Cotton Exchange, held this afternoon, James F. Wenman, President, in the chair, resolutions were passed condemnatory of the Bland Silver Bill, as its passage would be injurious to the entire cotton producing interest of this country which is closely allied with the markets of the world.. It was to the interests alike of the merchant, planter and laborer, that our standard of values should harmonize with those of the principal commercial nations of the world. They hailed with satisfaction the action of the New Orleans Clearing House and Chamber of Commerce; also the Savannah Cotton Exchange on this subject, deeming their interests identical.

ANOTHER FLOOD.

Staunton River Bridge Gone—The Roanoke River Rapidly Rising.

RICHMOND, VA., Jan. 11.—The heavy rains for the past two days have caused another rise in the rivers. The bridge over the Staunton river on the Richmond and Danville Railroad is again swept away. The iron bridge over the same river, on the Virginia Midland Railroad, between Lynchburg and Danville, is also washed away. The Roanoke river, at Weldon, N. C., is also very high. The water at noon today, was rising at the rate of six to eight inches per hour. The bridges at that point are threatened.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

The Cabinet meeting was short and unimportant.

Senator Oglesby of Illinois, is announced as a greenback and silver man.

The President has pardoned two mail robbers and commuted the sentences of two murderers and one raper, from death to imprisonment for life.

Col. Shaffer was before the Committee of Foreign Affairs to-day, when the consideration of the diplomatic situation between the countries was resumed.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11. — Schurz says he never wrote a letter of resignation nor thought about it. Lieutenant Bullis, after testifying before the Committee, left for the Texas border.

A delegation of [illegible] from New York is here, urging the reduction of the tobacco tax to 16 cents. They however, do not antagonize General Cabell's bill reducing the tax to 12 cents and allowing a drawback of the tax for stock in the hands of manufacturers.

In contradiction of the impression that Willard's Hotel was about being closed, it is stated that the assignees have assigned the lease and personal property of the hotel to Mitchell C. McDonald, who will run it without interruption.

Honolulu Devastated by Fire.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11.—A fire at Honolulu devastated the esplanade portion of the city, destroying the Government warehouses opposite the Custom House; the wharves and sheds, which were devoted to the use of the Ocean Mail steamers; the lumber yards, and a number of private buildings, including storehouses, manufacturing establishments, etc. The loss is estimated at about $250,000; the government loses $60,000; the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, $26,000; T. S. Davis, $26,000; Alleu & Robinson, $25,000, and W. G. Irwin & Co., $20,000.

Death of a Greek Politician.

ATHENS, Jan. 11.—Bulmaris, a well-known Greek politician, died of apoplexy. He was President of the provincial Government of Athens in 1862, and later was President of the Council and Minister of the Interior.

The Tobacco Tax.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 11.—The tobacco dealers here held a meeting and adopted a memorial to Congress, asking a reduction in the tobacco tax and a drawback on the tax already paid.

Prayer for Victor Emanuel.

SPEECH ON AN AFRICAN METHODIST BISHOP.

The Liberian Society Pronounced a Fraud.

(Special correspondence of the NEWS.)

FAYETTEVILLE, Jan. 3. 1878.

At the Emancipation celebration in this city, Bishop J. W. Hood, colored, delivered a noteworthy speech.

In regard to his political standing he said: "It is now some years since I ceased to take an active part in politics, and consequently, I have been accused of indifference to the interests of the colored people. So long as I saw a strong party opposing us in the exercise of our political rights, just so long was I an active partisan, and to be found, at all times, in the thickest of the fight, but when the Democratic party in 1872 nominated Horace Greeley, a staunch friend of our race, for President, on a party platform promising equal rights to all, I felt that the end of the strife was near, and retired from the rank of politicians. Were there now a party hostile to us, I would still be there, but before the last Presidential election, the Democratic party nominated Samuel J. Tilden on a platform guaranteeing the full exercise of all our rights as citizens, and Mr. Tilden in his letter of acceptance, endorsed every sentiment set forth in the platform, and could we have trusted the promises of politicians it would have been a matter of little importance to us which party had been successful; and we believe that the promises of politicians on the whole, are not far in advance of public sentiment; that what the leaders of a party promise, the great mass of good men in that party will see performed."

In speaking of education, Bishop Hood said:

"We need education, without it no people can advance in the march of civilization. Good schools should be established, and our children should be sent to them. Our young men who were debarred from the privilege of attending school in their childhood, should endeavor, while they are still young, to atone for it in some degree. Some of our young men desire to attend schools where the classics and sciences are taught before they understand the simplest branches of knowledge.

This is a wrong idea; what you want is a good English education. We do not speak Latin and Greek, our newspapers and books are not printed in these languages. A complete education, it is true, includes these things, but with your limited opportunities, the first thing for you to learn is your own language."

"We need good teachers; our young men and young women should take advantage of the opportunity afforded by the establishment of the Normal School at this place. They should use every effort to acquire knowledge, and then disseminate it among the people."

In the emigration subject he said: "There is another matter with which a certain class of men are disturbing our people in the South. I refer to the Liberia Emigration scheme, I rejoice that none of these men have found their way to Fayetteville, and I sincerely hope they never will. They are simply engaged in [illegible] men, out of employment, calculated to impose on the credulous, and will line their own pockets at their expense."

"The whole thing is a fraud. In the first place, Liberia is not what it is represented to be. There are very few foreign or American born colored people there; the climate is fatal to them, and statistics show that the mortality is greater than the increase, so that unless they are constantly recruited by immigration, the depopulation of the State is only a matter of time. A short time since, the whole population would have been destroyed by hostile native tribes, had the Liberians not been protected by American gun boats, and if this emigration society would only promise to furnish coffins to those who die there, it might appropriately be styled a "Burial Society."

"We must remain in this country. Here we were born, here our fathers lived and died, and here we will die.

"No man can live happily or prosper unless he is friendly with those among whom he dwells; neither can we prosper, unless we have the good will of our fellow men." We must acquire property, "get a foothold on the soil," and we must so conduct ourselves in our intercourse with others, as to deserve, av, to command respect, for if you show yourselves worthy of it, it will not be withheld from you.

And I believe that the time is not far distant, when the station which a man fills in life, and the estimation in which he is held by his fellow-men, will not be determined by the color of his skin, but by his character for intelligence and integrity." C. W. H.

FRANTIC FEMALES.

Doings of the Woman Suffragists at Washington.

[Condensed from the Washington Post, Jan. 10, 1878.]

The Sixteenth Amendment Convention met at Lincoln Hall, and filled it to its utmost capacity. Fred Douglass, (colored), and Robert Perris, (colored), were among the persons invited to seats on the platform.

Elizabeth Cady Stanton reported a series of resolutions which proclaim equal rights to all citizens, without regard to sex, the duty of the National Congress to grant women their rights; that womens' right to the ballot should be considered before the claims of Indians and Chinese; condemn the proposition to tack a sectarian amendment to the Constitution,, the injustice of taxing women's property and of exempting clergymens,' and in favor of compulsory education, to the end that after 1885 no person shall vote who cannot read and write the English language.

A LIVELY DEBATE.

Mrs. Stanton invited a general discussion on the resolutions, saying the women enjoyed nothing better than a warm debate. An old gentlemen, who gave his name as A. H. Merrill, promptly accepted the challenge. He begun his speech with the remark, "I had a father and a mother," which brought down the house. Pointing towards the stage, he shouted: "If you ladies believe in God and justice, strip off your silks and satins and go to work." This called for more applause, and the old man was called to time. Mrs. Tillotson, of New York, who wore a bloomer suit of gray, steped forward to answer Merrill, and her appearance was greeted with long and loud laughter. She was interrupted in her address by a lady in the audience who was identified as Mrs. Crocker, a writer for the press. She said this Government has been run up to the present by its stomach and bowels, and it is time for it to be run by its brains. She was rather severe upon women in general, and said that the sex need not expect to get what they ask until they go to the Capitol "with something to dicker;" that men do not give something for nothing, and when the women are ready to trade they can get what they ask.

Rev. Olympia Brown, Mrs. Stanton, Mary A. S. Cary (the first colored woman who ever edited a paper in this country), Mrs. Davis, an independent delegate from Virginia; Miss Lawrence, of Massachusetts; Mrs. Dr. Winslow and Mrs. Bella Lockwood all delivered addresses in support of the womens' movement and Fred Douglass, by request addressed the audience. The committee to represent the Woman's Suffrage Association of America at the Paris Exposition was announced as Bella A Lockwood, Matilda J. Gage, Dr. Mary Thompson, M, A. Ricker and Elizabeth B. Harbert.

NAMES OF THE SINNERS.

Wednesday evening a fair house assembled to hear Mrs. Harbert, Mrs. Gage and Olympia Brown. Dr. Clemence S. Lozier presided, and upon the stage sat Mrs. Elizabeth Boynton Harbert, Matilda Joslyn Gage, Lillie Devereux Blake, Rev. Olympia Brown, Julia Smith, Dr. Caroline B. Winslow, Dr. Susan A. Edson. Mrs. Dr. Ellis, Mrs. Theresa Juan Lewis, Lavinia C. Dundore, Hannah M. Shepard, Mary A. Stuart, Mary E. McPherson, Bella A. Lockwood Mrs Marilla M. Ricker, Mary A. A. P. Filley and Mrs. Napoleon Cromwell.

WOMAN AND CHRISTIANITY.

Mrs. Matilda Joslyn Gage spoke at length on the theme, "Woman, Church and State." She quoted from many authorities to prove that the canon law was wholly unfavorable to women. The church taught that woman herself was a shame and a sin. Pagan law had been gradually removing restrictions upon the personal liberty of woman, but Christian civilization had been constantly enacting laws reducing her to the choice of a marriage or a nunnery. Christianity narrowed the freedom of woman. The condition of woman in pagan India was better than it is in Christian countries to-day. The introduction of the English law in India tends to the demoralization of women there. The doctrine of the insubordination of women, as taught in the Bible, was the origin of the scandals that to-day disgrace the Church. Since lofty divines are now teaching that there is no hell, woman should take courage and doubt the authenticity of the Pauline precepts about her obeying her husband or not speaking out in meeting. Nothing was too sacred for investigation. Religion, as all other things, had its limits. As St. Augustine had predicted the downfall of Rome, so she predicted the of Christianity, which had degraded the morals of women. The real crisis of to-day is woman.

Lillie Devereux Blake was then introduced to the audience, and received with applause. She said the most remarkable thing in the whole matter of woman's rights was that men did not seem to know that any women existed. Constitution making women citizens was solely the product of his ignorance of her existence. The duties of citizens were to pay taxes, serve on juries and do military duty. As to the first, it could not be denied that women had been performing that duty splendidly since the United States had became a nation. She claimed they would perform jury duty as willingly as men, and as for military duty, any woman could serve her country as valiantly those men who during the last war purchased substitutes. Woman was not represented by man unless he asked how she wanted him to vote and then voted as she said.

A very long postcript to a letter from Susan B. Anthony was read by Mrs. Spencer, a characteristic sentence of which expressed Miss Anthony's hope that Olympia Brown would come to this Convention and wallop Senator Ingalls, of Kansas, as thoroughly as she had done some twenty years before.

Lavinia C. Dundore, Judge Lockwood's constable, was next introduced, and made a speech which clearly demonstrated that if brains and the power to talk well were qualifications for a constable, then nature had superbly endowed her for that office.

Mrs. Spencer announced that next day the Convention would meet in the reception room of the Senate, and if that body adjourned in time they would enter the Senate chamber and have a session of prayer. The meeting then adjourned.

The Laurinburg Fire.

(Charlotte Observer.)

Our telegraphic columns contain a brief account of the disastrous fire at Laurinburg yesterday morning. Passengers on the Wilmington train last night give some further particulars. When the train passed there about 1 o'clock in the day, the wildest confusion prevailed. Many of the citizens lost everything they had, some having been burned out of house and home. The fire broke out in the store of Hector McLean about 4 o'clock in the morning. The adjoining houses were mostly frame buildings, and the flames spread rapidly. Finally it was seen that the only means of stopping them was to tear down some of the buildings and thereby make a break in the row of houses on that side of the street. Two of these were consequently torn down, and the flames quelled, but not until ten others had burned to the ground. Some of the merchants saved a portion of their goods, but all sustained heavy losses.

It was thought that the store of McLean was robbed and then set on fire. The last man who was in the house left it early in the night, and he states that the only fire in the building was in a coal stove which was tightly closed, and that this was almost entirely burned out. An attempt was made to rob this store a few weeks since, but was unsuccessful.

This town has suffered greatly from fires at different times in its history.

NEW HAMPSHIRE FOR PEACE.

Resolutions for Pacification, Reform, Specie Payments. Economy.

The State Convention of Republicans which met at Concord, January 9., adopted the following platform.

Resolved, That the Republicans of New-Hampshire reaffirm and readopt the Cincinnati platform, which pledged the party to these declarations and principles, to wit: The United States of America is a nation; the full protection of all citizens in the full enjoyment of all their rights; the permanent pacification of the Southern section of the Union, the redemption of United States notes in coin, by a continuous and steady progress to specie payments; that Senators and Representatives, who may be judges and accusers, should not dictate appointments to office; the invariable rule for appointments to have reference to honesty, fidelity and capability of appointees, leaving to the party in power those places where the harmony and vigor of the Administration require its policy to be represented; the deprecation of all sectional feelings and tendencies; the speedy, through, and unsparing prosecution and punishment of all who betray official trusts; opposition to further land grants to corporations and monopolies; the adjustment of duties upon imports for revenue, so as to promote the interests of American labor, and advance the prosperity of the whole people.

Resolved, That we recognize the paramount duty of President Hayes to render these high and solemn professions actual and living realities; and while we admit an honest difference of opinion in respect to his past acts, we welcome and approve his patriotic and sincere efforts to keep faith with the people, and secure to the whole country the blessings of a just, efficient and honest Republican National Administration.

Resolved, That we condemn as recreant and ruinous the second attempt of the Democratic House of Representatives to destroy the Resumption Act, and thus render abortive years of anxiety and waiting and praying to make the greenback dollar the equal of the gold dollar in its capacity to reward labor and pay the public creditor.

Resolved, That we disapprove and denounce any legislation, open or disguised, tending to repudiate the public debt in whole or in part; that we deem a change in the standard of values, by making the depreciated silver dollar a legal-tender for all public and private indebtedness, a violation of the rights of property, a repudiation of Government contracts, and a wrong done to labor, criminal in its nature and dishonorable to the Nation; and we call on the President to use the veto, if it becomes necessary, as did his courageous predecessor, to shield the National honor from legislation that threatens to wound and blast it.

Resolved, That a free and unobstructed passage to the ballot-box is the constitutional right of every citizen of whatever race, color or condition. In republican party reading that it is the true National party, while the Democratic party, opposing and denying that right through intimidation and violence, has shown that it is the real sectional party.

Resolved, That universal education, aided and enforced by legal authority, is the only safe and enduring basis on which republican governments and institutions can rest; therefore we demand of Congress and the Legislature the institution of such means, compulsory if need be, which shall secure to children of the Republic primary education, so that every voter shall be able to read and understand the ballot that he casts.

Further be it Resolved, That we are opposed to money subsidies and land grants to private corporations and interests, and we demand that our Senators and Representatives in Congress shall sturdily oppose all schemes to rob the Treasury and injure public credit; and,

Resolved, That the unchallenged purity, economy and, efficiency of all departments of the present Administration, the continued reduction of the public debt, the refunding of bonds at a lower rate of interest, and the wise and hopeful efforts to restore prosperity at home and extend the field of American commerce and manufactures abroad, deserve and receive our unqualified approbation.

Resolved, That we condemn as factious and mischievous all attempts to reopen the Presidential controversy, or to question the title of the President to his high office.

The tenth, eleventh and twelfth resolutions relate to State affairs.

The Fayetteville Railroad.

(Greensboro Patriot.)

A meeting of the directors of the Fayetteville road was held at Fayetteville last Wednesday.

J. A. Gilmer, State proxy, Messrs. D. F. Caldwell and C. P. Mendenhall, directors for the State, and D. W. C. Benbow, were in attendance from this city.

There was much interest manifested by the directors in the completion of the road to this point and an evident determination to build it if the people along the line will offer a reasonable co-operation.

The meeting authorized the employment of a corps of engineers, the erection of a stockade for the hands to be supplied from the penitentiary, and to purchase the necessary animals, carts, tools &c., to begin work, provided the necessary amount of money—about $10,000—can be raised along the line.

This is a small sum, considering the magnitude of the work, and it seems to us, unless our people are blind to all their interests, that it should be speedily and easily raised.

The plan is to issue in return for such sums thus loaned or subscribed interest-bearing bonds to take effect from the completion of the grading, and it is the intention of the company to have the work done under its own supervision, as cheaply as it can be done, as a business and a remunerative enterprise.

Among those who have given the subject attention, and are acquainted with the productive capacity of the country through which it will run, there is not the slightest doubt of its doing a large business and yielding a handsome dividend on the money invested in it.

There is but 51 miles to build, to give us 200 miles of highway by rail and river to Wilmington, our leading sea port, and through one of the richest and most productive sections of the State, which would give abundant supplies to the carrying capacity of the road contemplated.

There is no enterprise before the people of this State at this time which promises so much with such little outlay. It is in fact a great State work the continuation of which, ultimately, to Mt. Airy and thence further on one side, and from Winston West on the other will give two great connections with the Western States and put thousands of tons of Western produce on the docks of Wilmington. In this connection there is one fact to which public attention may be called, that is that nearly every road in North Carolina is under the control of some corporation which is competing for through freight and travel, completely ignoring local freight and travel, which are exorbitantly high, to the destruction of our local enterprises. Every one of these through lines has its terminus in some other State—draining this State and robbing our own ports to build up rival ports elsewhere. This is a fact that all reflecting people see and all State-loving people deplore.

Now the road in contemplation will be unhampered by any foreign corporation, and being eminently a local road will foster local enterprise, and benefit the farmers, merchants and other business men of the section through which it runs. When continued through instead of draining our State to build up rivals it will carry the products of the great West to our doors to add to our wealth and our power.

It is a work in which the people of the whole State should take a lively interest, especially those in this immediate section to whom its completion is a matter of such vast importance.

The shrub is twelve or fifteen feet high, and is as thrifty and hardy as the wild growth of the native forest.

Mars' Moons.

When the telegraph announced the discovery by Prof. Hall that our neighboring planet had two satellites and the dispatches read the next morning at ten thousand American breakfast tables, what think you was the effect upon the hearers? Some colloquy similar to the following was sure to occur: "Mars has two moons, hey? Fuss me like milk, Kitty. Strange, isn't it, that astronomers never saw them before. Another chop, please. I wonder what they'll discover next? These corn cakes are excellent. Have the latest from Europe?" We have matter of course. Even truth must appear in flaring colors to make herself seen. The virtues of Dr Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Pleasant Purgative Pellets have been tested in ten thousand households, whose testimony will tell you that they consider the discovery and introduction of these remedies of far greater importance to the world than the moons of Mars.

THE UNDERSIGNED PURPOSES establishing a School in Raleigh for the preparation of young gentlemen for admission to the Bar.

The advantages which this city offer in the convenience of access to the best Libraries, in opportunities for attending the Courts which are in session more than half the year, and in visiting members of the Bar and other prominent gentlemen, surpass those of any other locality in the State.

Lectures will be delivered at night for the benefit of those engaged in business.

Fee for the course, one hundred dollars.

It is proposed to form a new class on the first of January next.

Applicants received immediately.

VEGETINE.

MOTHERS, READ THIS.

A GREAT BLESSING.

Vegetine

Worth a Dollar a Drop.

SOUTH BOSTON, July 10, 1871.

Mothers, are your little ones fretful? and is your patience almost exhausted in vain efforts to please them? I can sympathize with you, and can tell you what will make your little child quiet, give it a good appetite, and procure for it hours of sweet, sound sleep.

My little girl is two and a-half years old; and, during that time, I have not had two consecutive nights' rest. She has been sick a number of times, and no one seemed to know what was troubling her. It was hard to hear her little fretful cry, and not know what to do for her. I doctored her for worms, but it did no good; and I was nearly tired out with sleepless nights and troublesome days.

I heard of the Vegetine, and determined to try it. It has proved a blessing to me and my child. It has cleansed from her stomach and bowels the sores which kept gathering there; and now she sleeps soundly from her bedtime until very late in the morning, besides a long nap at mid-day. Her appetite is good; and, in fact, she is like a different child. I often say the true value of this medicine to me is a dollar a drop. Try it? Cleanse the humors from your children's blood while they are young. Try it, and you will join with me in calling it a great blessing.

MRS. ELLEN L. CLAPP,
175 Tudor street.

What I Know About Vegetine.

SOUTH BOSTON.

H. R. STEVENS, ESQ:—

Dear Sir,—I have had considerable experience with the Vegetine. For Dyspepsia, General Debility and impure blood, the Vegetine is superior to anything which I have ever used. I commenced taking Vegetine about the middle of last winter, and after using a few bottles it entirely cured me of dyspepsia, and my blood never was in as good condition as at the present time. It will afford me pleasure to give any further particulars relative to what I know about this good medicine to any one who will call or address me at my residence, 186 Athens street.

Very respectfully,
MONROE PARKER,
186 Athens street.

GREAT BENEFIT.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 16, 1872.

MR. H. R. STEVENS, ESQ:—

Dear Sir,—The two bottles of Vegetine furnished me by your agent, my wife has used with great benefit.

For a long time she has been troubled with dizziness and costiveness. These troubles are now entirely removed by the use of Vegetine. She was also troubled with Dyspepsia and General Debility, and has been greatly benefited.

THOMAS GILMORE, 229½ Walnut street.

EXPERIENCE OF YEARS.

CHARLESTON, MASS.

H. R. STEVENS, ESQ.:—

This is to certify that I have used your "Blood Preparation" (Vegetine) in my family for several years, and think that, for Scrofula or Cankerous Humors or Rheumatic Affections, it cannot be excelled; and as a blood purifier and spring medicine, it is the best thing I have ever used, and I have used almost everything. I can cheerfully recommend it to any one in need of such a medicine.

Yours respectfully,
MRS. A. A DINSMORE, 19 Russell street

A Source of Great Anxiety.

BOSTON, MASS., June 5, 1872.

My daughter has received great benefit from the use of Vegetine. Her declining health was a source of great anxiety to all of her friends. A few bottles of the Vegetine restored here health, strength and appetite.

N. H. TILDEN,
Insurance and Real Estate Agent,
No. 4 Sears Buildings.

It is a compound extracted from barks, roots and herbs. It is Nature's Remedy. It is perfectly harmless from any bad effect upon the system. It is a purifying and strengthening, tonic acts directly upon the blood. It quiets the nervous system. It gives you good, sweet sleep at night. It is a great panacea for our aged fathers and mothers, for it gives them strength, quiets their nerves, and gives them Nature's sweet sleep, as has been proved by many an aged person. It is the great Blood Purifier. It is a soothing remedy for our children. It has relieved and cured thousands. It is very pleasant to take; every child likes it.

STATE NEWS.

There is to be a masked ball in Greensboro on the evening of the 22nd.

The next session of the Louisburg Female College will begin on next Monday the 14th of January.

The January term of New Hanover Superior Court begins next Monday, Judge Moore will preside.

The citizens of Salem are taking a lively interest in the reading club and the Press says that all are in favor of establishing a circulating library.

Greensboro State: A few days since a veteran of the war of 1812, Mr. James McQueston, of Oak Ridge, killed three wild turkeys at one shot. Can that shot be beaten?

Franklin Courier: During the month of December 36 couples were "hitched" together in this county. One-third of the number being white couples and the other two-thirds colored.

Charlotte Observer 11th: Mr. James S. Williamson, who fell from the window of his room about a week ago, breaking his leg and sustaining several other injuries, died yesterday morning at 1 o'clock, from the effects of the same.

Charlotte Observer 11th: Another party of ten white people left Gastonia yesterday for Little Rock, Arkansas, and several others will join them in a few days. Three years is the time given them to return, wiser and poorer.

Oxford Free Lance: The owners of ice houses in town have been busy filling up during the past week and we presume those that were prepared have secured a full supply. The season has been remarkably favorable, and the ice is of splendid quality, averaging about 2½ inches in thickness.

Wilmington Review, 10th: Night before last, between 8 and 9 o'clock, Mr. Courtney S. Servoss was attacked near the corner of Third and Dock streets, by some parties unknown, who dealt him a severe blow with a stick from the rear, which felled him to the ground.

Oxford Free Lance: The present term of the Inferior Court has given very general satisfaction, and considering it was the first session the business has been disposed of in a very speedy and efficient manner. As an experiment the Inferior Court may be called a success.

Oxford Free Lance: Mrs. S. A. Elliott, of Oxford, has applied for a patent on her improvement on the old reel used in the spinning of wool and cotton, and she is now in correspondence with many of the leading factories for the purpose of putting it upon the market at an early day.

In Anson county on last Friday night, four negro children were burned to death. We learn from the Herald that before their parents left them to attend a dance the chimney was discovered to be on fire and that the only precaution taken by the father of the children to quell the flames was to throw a bucket of water on them.

SOUTHERN NEWS.

Col. Alfred Rhett has been appointed Chief of Police, Charleston, South Carolina.

The jury in the case of Ex-Governor Bullock, of Georgia, have rendered a verdict of not guilty.

A Virginia girl whose affianced failed to appear on the wedding day, acted as bridesmaid to another couple the same evening.

Kentucky owes but $180,000 and has $500,000 in her treasury to meet the debt when it falls due. Her taxes were greatly reduced two years ago.

Griffin, (Ga.) News: The House of Representatives in the next Legislature has three Republicans, one of whom only has the perfume known as odor d'Afrique.

Huntingdon (Tenn.) Vindicator: A young lady in McNairy county knocked a large wild cat out of a tree a few days ago with a half brick, killing the animal instantly.

Senator Withers, of Virginia, has recovered from his recent illness, and his sight, which was weak before, has been greatly improved by his season of rest.

Postmaster-General Key says there are too many repudiators in Tennessee for the good of the State, but he has no expectation of being the candidate for Governor against them.

Hickman, Ky., Courier: The late warm, wet spell of weather was the occasion of thousands of pounds of pork being lost in this vicinity. We understand it was the case very generally elsewhere.

It is said that four hundred and twenty Good Templars of Key West are about to be hauled over the disciplinary coals for taking a Christmas dispensation without authority. Christmas times are hard on such organizations.

Handsboro, (Miss.) Democrat: Mr. J. C. Clarke, the General Manager of the line of railroad leading from New Orleans to Chicago, says the tide of immigration from the West to the South is setting in in real earnest. He thinks thousands will seek homes here during the coming year. All who come are welcome.

Tuscumbia, Ala., is a town of from 1,200 to 1,500 inhabitants. The North Alabamian says: Only two drinking saloons in town now. Two closed out last Monday. By way of reform, our people, in the language of an economizing friend, are resolved "to do with as little as possible these hard times," and consequently have quit "setting them up."

Alexandria, Va., January 8.—The counsel in the suit of the heirs of Mrs. General Lee for the recovery of the estate on which the Arlington Cemetery is situated, after consultation to-day, agreed to ask Judges Bond and Hughes to-morrow to fix a day for the peremptory trial of the case in February next. There will be nothing more done in the matter at the session of the court now holding here.

The Atlanta Tribune says: "We understand that a meeting of the citizens of Atlanta will soon be called to ask Senator Hill to come down and out, or in other words to resign his seat in the United States Senate. Should this be done, our efficient police will have to employ an extra number of men to garrison the empty houses of those who are longing for an opportunity to attend just such a meeting.

President Hayes's Title.

Rumor credits Mr. Conkling with the intention to set on foot an investigation to test the title of Mr. Hayes to the Presidency. Mr. Montgomery Blair's memorial on the same subject we published yesterday. It is well enough to record the opinions of the Northern press on the matter.

The New York Herald says:

"No intelligent man can doubt that the Supreme Court would sustain the decision of the Electoral Commission that there is no constitutional power to go behind the action of the electoral colleges. If there is any serious purpose to agitate this subject it proceeds from the Republican enemies of the President with a view to bully him and intimidate him into submission. But no really shrewd politician would attempt to frighten him with such a scarecrow, or would wish to give him the great advantage he would derive from the assaults of a set of mad revolutionists."

The New York Times says:

"The Republican party was practically a unit in support of the claim to the Presidency urged in his behalf. It insisted that he had been rightfully elected, and long before the final decision was reached it approved all the methods which the Electoral Commission accepted as conclusive. The party cannot rid itself of responsibility or make Mr. Hayes a scapegoat for its own doings. The responsibility extends further. The result was rendered possible by the co-operation of the moderate portion of the Democracy. To any bargain they must have been privy."

The New York World says:

"Congress has a good many matters of importance on its hands just now, but we see no reason why Mr. Blair's memorial, offered in the Maryland House of Delegates Tuesday, should not afford an excellent opportunity for the appointment of such a Republican committee as we have elsewhere recommended for the thorough and effectual washing, drying and mangling of Republican foul linen." [The World errs at another point in saying Mr. Blair's memorial had been adopted by the Maryland Legislature.]

The New York Tribune says:

"Mr. Blair charges that the Presidential question was decided in favor of a railroad corporation, and even drags into this statement of reasons why Mr. Hayes was not entitled to his office a denunciation of his relations to parties since he took it. Mr. Blair's pronunciamento will make good fodder for Democratic editors, but as a document having any legal bearing it is beneath consideration."

The New York Sun says:

"The bringing forward of such a memorial on the eve of the reassembling of Congress is only one more proof of the widespread feeling that matters cannot be allowed to remain as they are. This feeling is as universal as it is irrepressible. The instinct of the people teaches them that there must not be a prosperous immunity for fraud in this country; and the instinct of the politicians teaches them that it will not be safe to disregard popular sentiment in such a matter."

The Baltimore Gazette says:

"Mr. Hayes has withdrawn the troops from the South, and the country has sustained him in that. He has recognized the Hampton and Nichols governments, and the people have given a hearty assent. He has endeavored to reform our Civil Service, and the Nation has wished him God speed in that; and although Mr. Hayes is an usurper, just so long as he serves the country faithfully just so long the country will support him. Mr. Blair's resolution is now in the hands of the Committee on Federal Relations. When it is reported back to the House we trust it will be shorn of its partisan and irrelevant features, and that it will be directed at the vital point at issue—the frauds which the Electoral Commission refused to examine, but which must be probed to the bottom before Samuel J. Tilden can be declared President of the United States."

The Washington Post says:

"Neither principle nor policy, neither patriotism nor public interest can ever justify the suppression of the truth. The knowledge of the exact truth in regard to the gravest functions of our government is the right of every citizen. The knowledge of the true history of the theft of the Presidency, particularly of the bargain by which alone the electoral count and the inauguration of Mr. Hayes was forced, is demanded by every intelligent and independent well wisher of his country, to whatever party he may belong. Let us have the whole truth, no matter who shall be bit."

The Philadelphia Times says:

"Mr. Blair was the editor of the Democratic organ at Washington during the proceedings preparatory and incident to the electoral count, and not only fought the electoral bill with all his might, but favored the defeat of the count by fair means or foul, when it was apparent that the Republicans would carry the day. He may find enough men in the Maryland Legislature to enable him to get the matter before Congress, but no good result can possibly attend persistence in his purpose. The questions settled in the stormy days of February and March, 1877, cannot be reopened without real peril to the cause of peace, peril that may in certain contingencies be almost as deadly as those that were then escaped so narrowly. The time has not arrived, and will not soon, when these questions can be dispassionately considered."

The Philadelphia Press says:

Blair's memorial to contest the President's title is "a masterly effort in its way, and proves that when this movement begins it will be handled with vigor and ability." The Press adds:

"It is not likely that it can ever amount to much before the people of the country, who want quiet and not chronic convulsions, but it is a good lesson in the way of demonstrating the punic faith of the democracy and the danger of having any relations with them excepting vigilant hostilities."

The Philadelphia Inquirer says:

"Mr. Montgomery Blair is apparently unaware that the world moves. Nine months ago had he presented to Congress the memorial which he has just finished getting up, excuses might have been found for the stupidity of the proceeding. The country is heartily tired of this chronic squabbling over dead issues. Let us have a rest."

The Philadelphia North American also construes Mr. Blair's movement into a bid for the senatorship, and says: "Mr. Blair seems to think that he can stop the march of time by simply turning back the hands on the face of the clock."

The Philadelphia Evening Bulletin also thinks Mr. Blair's memorial indicates nothing more than his desire to be elected to the United States Senate; and adds: "As an argument against Hayes and in favor of reopening the Presidential question, it is worthy only of contempt, for it is puerile, inconsequential and full of questionable assertions."

A special telegram from Washington to the Baltimore Sun says that there is a movement in favor of the bill of Representative Robbins, of North Carolina, for a reduction of the tobacco tax from 24 to 12 cents a pound, and spirituous liquors from 90 to 40 cents a gallon. The amendment offered by Representative Cabell allows a drawback of the tax on all to bacco which manufacturers may have on hand when such proposed reduction goes into effect. Col. George C. Ayres, chairman, with C. G. Holland and Thomas J. Talbot, constituting a committee of the tobacco manufacturers of Danville and surrounding country in Virginia, are here to support the amendment. This committee will meet representatives of the trade from St. Louis, New York, Baltimore, Chicago, Detroit, Louisville and other cities in formal session on Saturday, and will have a hearing before the committee of ways and means early next week. All are represented as favoring the Robbins bill provided Cabell's amendment be adopted, as it is an important feature affecting the industry. The Robbins bill should have the united support of the Representatives. It is about time Congress was doing something for the South. Prompt action should be had in this matter. Pass the bill or kill it at once. The uncertainty about it is working great injury to the tobacco systems of this State.

THE New Hampshire Republicans renominated B. F. Prescott for Governor. The resolutions adopted are outspoken for Hayes and specie payments. Of President Hayes it said: "While we admit an honest difference of opinion in respect to his past policy, we welcome and approve his patriotic and sincere efforts to keep faith with the people and to secure to the whole country the blessings of a just, efficient and honest Republican National Administration." On the Southern question, it contains a demand for "the permanent pacification of the Southern section of the Union," and "the deprecation of all sectional feelings and tendencies." Such unequivocal approval of the President's policy justifies the conclusion that the old discords, the hates and the prejudices of the past, cannot be sufficiently aroused to shape political action in the North, and that the prospects of peace and quietude are brighter than ever before.

THE National Convention of the Boards of Trade of the United States, which has been fixed for the 22d of this month, will be largely attended, as over two hundred delegates have already signified their intention to be present. The convention will accomplish a great work if it can arrive at the main object for which it is called—the adoption of such measures as will secure a revival of business prosperity. Will not the Boards of Trade of Raleigh, Charlotte, Wilmington, and other points in this State be represented?

HUMBERT I., the new King of Italy, was born March 14, 1844; and is consequently now in the prime of life. He is married to the Princess Margaret of Savoy, a lady of much grace, goodness and intelligence, a daughter of the Duke of Genoa. The new King is a good soldier, having taken part in various wars. He is not popular with the Italian people. He seems to have no sympathy with their wants and wishes. He has a son, eight years of age, so that the present Italian succession is in no danger of being broken.

THE sixteenth amendment women are going to have "a prayer test" in the rotunda of the Capitol, with a view of influencing Congress. We hope some North Carolina representative will get up and move that the whole band of hussies be sent to the House of Correction. Whoever will have the manliness to do something to squelch these scandalous men-women, will be hurried to Congress without opposition, we warrant.

THE Tarboro Southerner says: "Since Hons. George Davis and W. T. Dortch have absolutely declined to allow their names to go before the Convention, Judge Howard looms up as the candidate from the East, without a rival." Judge Howard, we believe, would be entirely acceptable to the people.

In the New Hampshire Republican Convention, William E. Chandler was denounced as "a political tramp," and charged with dishonorable conduct as a lobbyist,

DAILY NEWS

SATURDAY,.....JANUARY 12, 1878.

THE WEEKLY NEWS is the best weekly paper published in North Carolina. It is only ONE DOLLAR per year, postage paid, contains 32 columns of plain printed news from every section of the country, and important advertisements. Always Cash.

GENERAL NOTES.

The Secretary of the Treasury has recieved a conscience contribution of $81 from an unknown person at Seneca, Kansas.

Two Kentucky hunters amused themselves by firing wads at each other, and there was fun in the sport until one forgot to take the ramrod out of his gun.

Savannah News: Packard is bound to get even with the administration in some way for the loss of his usurped Governorship of Louisiana. He has adopted the practice of free lunching at the White House.

All employes on the temporary roll of the Treasury department whose time expires within the first ten days of this month have been notified that they will be discharged on the 19th inst., unless Congress will appropriate in the meantime.

Under the poetic title "Murmurs of the Tied," a San Francisco paper recounts a year's wrecks on the shoals of married life. There were 243 divorces granted in that city during 1877. On the other hand there were 2,000 marriages.

The total number of Methodists in the United States is over 3,315,000; in Canada, 161,172; in Great Britain and her colonies, 907,404. In all the world they number 4,383,888. The increase in lay members for 1877 throughout the world is given as 211,309.

The strength of the French army is as follows: Active army (five classes), 719,366; reserve of active army (four classes), 520,982; territorial army (five classes), 594,736; reserve of territorial army (six classes), 638,782; total 2,473,866—all trained men.

The sale of pews in Plymouth church, Brooklyn, Tuesday evening, shows a falling off in the income of the establishment. Last year the total receipts for premiums and rentals were $47,396.50, this year they are $36,904. Mr. Beecher took one of the two-dollar pews.

Louisville Courier: The House Committee on military affairs has made the discovery that the staff of our army is large enough to govern the combined armies of Russia and Germany. If that is true, the staff should be lopped a little. Our army resembles somewhat that of Greece, where there are more officers than privates.

M. Hugues, the Marseilles journalist, who lately killed another journalist in a duel, has written from Italy to say that he will give himself up at a proper time. He concludes his letter to the authorities: "I will answer to the law with my heart broken, but my head erect. When we have killed a man in a duel, we are sufficiently punished by his death."

Senator Eaton has presented a petition in the Senate from citizens of New Haven, Conn., asking that a silver dollar of 420 grains be coined by the governments to be a legal tender to the amount of $20 and less. Mr. Eaton gave notice that when the silver bill came up for discussion he should offer an amendment embodying the views presented in the petition.

Prince Humbert, who succeeds his father as King of Italy, is thirty-three years old, is a brave soldier and a man of independent mind. His proclamation on mounting the throne indicates that he will maintain his father's policy. As Victor Emanuel died at peace with the Pope, it is possible, however, that the antagonism between the Quirinal and the Vatican may not be continued.

A San Francisco correspondent says that gold is carted around there much as lead is carted in New York. Boys carry canvas bags of gold through the streets. Kegs and bags of gold are thrown into carts as though they were kegs of nails. In the Bank of Nevada trays of gold rest on the counter, not caged and wired as in the East, but with as little guard as is thrown around silks in a dry goods store.

On the line of the Virginia and Truckee Railroad, in Nevada, and between the snow fences, is a deer lick. Only one train a day is run over the road. The deer jump the fence to drink from the salt spring, and often the train dashes suddenly upon three or four of them. The deer either rejump the fence or start at full speed down the track ahead of the train. In the latter event, which is not uncommon, there is a lively chase, followed by the killing of the deer by the train employees' rifles.

Fifteen years ago Capt. Kottwitz was an honored officer in the Russian Imperial Guard, with an income of $20,000 a year from his private fortune. Lately he threw himself under a locomotive in Kansas City and was killed. In the time between his highest prosperity and his suicide he was, successively, a political exile in Siberia, an officer in the Union army during our war, an unfortunate speculator in Western land, and a penniless seeker after work that he could not get.

The oldest magazine in existence is now one but little heard of, and yet it has sufficient patronage to keep it afloat. This is the Gentleman's Magazine, published in London, where it was started by Edward Cave in 1740. Dr. Johnson wrote for this magazine under the nom de plume of "S. Smith." The place where it was published is still to be seen, and the magazine is now in its 137th volume. It is chiefly devoted to antiquarian research and has a specialty which commands sufficient patronage to keep it alive.

At a meeting of the Centennial association of Valley Forge, at Norristown, Pa., on the 8th, committees were appointed to conduct the forthcoming celebrations, and invitations to be present were sent to President and Mrs. Hayes, the cabinet officers, all of the state officers, and prominent officers of the army and navy. Among the military organizations invited are the Boston Ancient Artillery, New York Seventh Regiment, the Fifth Maryland, Chicago Zouaves, Norfolk Blues, and Charleston Blues. The meeting adjourned to meet on the ground February 22.

Washington Star: The statement that government is at last taking measures to popularize the four per cent. loan is one of the best bits of news we have had in a long time. This step will have the effect to keep the bonds largely in this country, and, what is of more importance, afford people of small meant an opportunity to make an available and safe investment of their savings, as the French people were able to do with their late great war loan. Now let the Treasury Department abandon the suicidal policy of trying to pay off the national debt in a decade of two, and we shall take a long step towards better times.

XANTHINE
PROF. HERITZ'S GREAT GERMAN HAIR RESTORATIVE
PREPARED BY XANTHINE CO. RICHMOND, VA

I have tried the Xanthine, and found it to be all it claims in restoring hair to its natural color and removing dandruff.
W. W. BENNETT.

(From Rev. Mr. Cameron, Minister of the Presbyterian Church South.)

MOSSY CREEK, Tenn., August 22, 1876.
Xanthine Co., Richmond, Va.:
I have used the Xanthine now for three years, and have induced others to try it, and have never known it to fail in accomplishing all you claim for it. It is an excellent tonic a pleasant dressing, removing and preventing dandruff and all unpleasant itching, promoting and preserving the natural growth and color of the hair, and rendering it glossy and pliable. I confidently, cheerfully and knowingly recommend it.

MISCELLANEOUS.

ODORLESS.
BURROW'S DISINFECTANT
Is the most powerful and lasting Disinfectant known. It may be safely used under any circumstances. After two minutes no odor from it or the place where it was used. Warranted to purify the air instantly in the sick room and hospital, preventing the spread of fevers and contagious diseases. Damp cellars made healthy. Barns and stables purified; put it in water closets and urinals and it renders them odorless and free from contagion. Thickly inhabited houses, crowded rooms and halls given a pure and healthy atmosphere by allowing it to evaporate. Street cars should use it and thus drive contagion from them. For ships it is the best known means for counteracting the odor from bilge water, will purify the ship and in no way injure any material. Beer saloons should use it as all bad odors will immediately disappear. Railroad companies need it in their waiting rooms and water closets. Restaurants and hotels need it.
Undertakers can preserve bodies one month with one pound of the Disinfectant.

ESTABLISHED 1850
LOCK HOSPITAL,
SOUTH FREDERICK ST., BALTIMORE, MARYLAND,
(Half minutes' walk from Postoffice.)
Practice Limited to Private and Confidential Diseases.
Dr. WORTHINGTON may be consulted upon all those diseases of the Generative organs which tend to embitter life and shorten its duration, including Nervous Debility, causing indigestion, pain in the back and loins, weakness, headache, impotency, impaired sight, loss of memory, eruption on the face and body, loss of sexual power, nervousness, &c., making married life unhappy, and single life miserable. The Doctor guarantees that no case placed in his treatment shall leave his care till thoroughly restored to sound and vigorous health, without the use of mercury in any form, his treatment being purely vegetable.
Notice to Country Patients.
Parties living at any distance from the hospital can be successfully treated by sending symptoms of their disease. The Doctor will forward to any address in the United States, free from observation, a printed list of questions, thereby enabling the patient to give a minute description of their case, which is all he requires to effect a quick and sure cure.
All letters directed to Dr. Worthington, Lock Hospital, Baltimore, Md., will receive prompt attention.
Office hours from 8 in the morning till 10 at night. Sundays, till 12 o'clock, noon.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

——Col. N. M. Long is quite ill at his home near Weldon.

——No cases in the Mayor's Court yesterday.

——The receipts of cotton were larger yesterday than on any day during the week, and the market closed firm.

——Judge Strong has returned to the city after a brief absence, and will deliver his law lecture to-night at the usual place and hour.

——The congregation of the Edenton Street Church now have that edifice well heated, having placed another large coal stove in the building.

——Church pastors are requested to notify us of any changes in their Sunday church services &c., to-day, so that they may be inserted in Sunday's issue.

——Charlotte folks appear to be somewhat excited over the discovery of a rat with white fur and pink eyes. Let some of our Raleigh naturalists overhaul their gazers and bring in a pink-furred rat with white eyes.

——The commissioners of the various counties of the State are so rapidly sending in their statements of the indebtedness of sheriffs to the State, to the Auditor, that that officers begs them not to be worried by any seeming delay in attending to their statements, for they must be taken in order.

Election of Field Officers N. C. S. G.

The election ordered in General Orders No. 19, from the Adjutant General's office, for a Major of the First Artillery Battalion, was held in Goldsboro Thursday, and Henry G. Flanner was elected Major of said Battalion. Lieut. W. M. Russ of the Raleigh Light Artillery, acted as Secretary of the meeting.

Maj. Flanner is a most efficient officer, and has for the past two years been in command of the Cape Fear Light Artillery of Wilmington. Under his careful supervision and able management we have no doubt but that there will be a very marked improvement in the Artilery branch of our State service.

We learn by a private telegram that at the meeting of the officers of the Second Regiment of Infantry, N. C. S. G. at Wadesboro, on Thursday last, for the purpose of electing the Field officers of that regiment, the following were elected: C. W. Alexander, Charlotte, Colonel; John W. Gordon, Wilmington, Lieutenant-Colonel, and James G. Branch, of Polkton, Major. Official notification of this election has not as yet been received by the Adjutant General.

Suffering Among the Poor.

We shudder while we read the sickening accounts of the misery and destitution among the poor people of the great Northern cities, and at times are so moved to pity by the saddening statements that we long to have the opportunity of ministering to the wants of these sufferers. Little do we know, or knowing, think, of the miserable condition of so many of our own poor, who without food, fire or bedding pass these weary winter days so sadly. We are informed by a gentleman that a poor woman in our city has burned the chairs in her room and the slats of her bed, in order to obtain enough fire to prevent her freezing. The suddenness of the late cold snap caught our poor in an utterly unprotected state, and there was no possible way of at once aiding them, as the Y. M. C. A. was not prepared for work. But now, we are happy to state, they are collecting contributions, and to-morrow will receive a partial supply of wood which will be issued to the deserving poor.

Wake Superior Court.

This Court met at 10 o'clock, A. M. His Honor, Judge McKoy, presiding. The following cases were acted on.

Upchurch vs Overby. Jury rendered a verdict in favor of the defendant Overby. Judgment accordingly.

Raleigh Gas Light Co. vs the City of Raleigh. Judgment for plaintiff.

Townsend vs Overby, two cases. Judgment: non-suit.

Smith & Nicodemus vs Overby; two cases. Judgment: non-suit.

Tyson & Bro., vs Overby. Judgment: non-suit.

H. J. Myers vs Oberby. Judgment: non-suit.

Carlin & Fulton vs Overby. Judgment: non-suit.

In the case of Harrison vs Overby, the jury was empaneled, and cause continued until this morning. Court adjourned. Bastardy docket to be taken up this morning, peremptorily.

Magistrate's Court.

Before Justice C. D. Upchurch.

State vs. Calvin, John, Charles and Robert Baugh, for assault and trespass on one Adolphus Sturdivant. These parties broke into the house of Sturdivant and engaged in a free fight over the corpse of a child, which lay in a room. The Justice required them to give bond in the sum of $400 for their appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court.

Will Troubles Never End?

The telegrams bring us the news that the rivers are raging, once again, the Staunton river bridge has been swept away, and that the Roanoke is rising rapidly. The delays and annoyance from the interruption of travel have became almost unbearable, and now our business men will be thrown on their "beam ends" by this announcement.

Week of Prayer.

The Union Prayer meeting at Swain street Baptist church last night was largely attended. The Pastor of the church, Rev. W. R. Gwaltney, made a stirring and interesting address in opening the meeting—and the following gentlemen took part in the meeting by leading in prayer and making addresses: Rev. Dr. Pritchard, Rev. W. C. Norman, Rev. Wm. R. Atkinson, A. M. McPheeters and C. B. Fairchild.

The last of the services will be held to-night at the Second Presbyterian church, services in the Chapel of the Deaf and Dumb Institution. Subject: Prayer:—For the Circulation of the Bible; for the observation of the Sabbath; for the removal of intemperance; for the rescue of the fallen; for the safety of those who travel by land and by water.

Young Men's Christian Association.

The annual meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association was held at the Salisbury Street Baptist Church, on Thursday evening, when the following officers were elected for the year:

D. W. Bain, President.
B. R. Harding, Vice-President.
John Armstrong, " "
W. J. Young, " "
W. S. Primrose, Treasurer.
T. C. Worth, Secretary.
N. B. Broughton, Corresponding Secretary.

The report of the committee who were appointed to wait on our citizens to ask their aid for the relief of the poor, stated that they had received several contributions and would at once wait on all our citizens for their subscriptions, either by circular or personal application. The Wood Committee reported that a supply had been procured and would soon be received for distribution. The distributors are appointed and will be announced to-morrow. The Association is now fully organized for its Winter's work of providing for the poor as far as they can.

Babies and Chromos.

Our mention of the Statesville Baby-show seems to have had a happy effect in inciting our own people to hold one of these exhibitions. We are informed by Messrs. W. C. Stronach and T. C. Worth, the Librarians of the First Presbyterian Church, that on Friday evening next they will give a dime party at the session room of the church, and in connection therewith will have a baby-show. The admission to the festivities is only ten cents and a handsome chromo will be given to each purchaser of a ticket. The affair will afford the greatest possible amount of amusement, and from the character of these two gentlemen and their known public spirit, visitors may feel satisfied that everything will be conducted "according to Hoyle." The proceeds of the entertainment are to be applied to the purchase of books for the Library, and the gentlemen assure us that any suplus funds will be used to buy palm leaf fans for the natives of the Samoan Islands, to which charming locality, Mr. Worth will soon go as a missionary. Let every married couple place at least one infant on exhibition.

Sudden Death of a Minister.

Rev. Junius P. Moore, Preacher in charge of the Littleton circuit of the N. C., Conference of the M. E. Church South, residing at Warrenton died instantly at his home, of heart disease, on Thursday. His age was about 55 years, and he had for a long time been connected with the Conference in this State, and had more than once occupied the position of Presiding Elder, once in this district for two years. He was one of the most prominent of the Methodist clergy in this State, and a man of learning and much ability. He was peculiarly fitted to adorn the pulpit, and by his death the Conference loses one of its most able members.

Supreme Court.

Supreme Court met at 10 o'clock, A. M. Friday, Present, Justices Reade, Rodman, Bynum and Faircloth.

Call of appeals from the 2nd District was resumed.

B. C. Mayo et als, vs. Calvin Jones et als, from Edgecombe; (plaintiffs appeal) argued by W. N. H. Smith and Fred. Phillips for plaintiffs, and Geo. Howard, John L. Bridgers, Jr., and Gilliam & Gatling contra.

In the same case, there is an appeal by defendants, which will be called first to-morrow (Saturday) and argued by the same counsel.

At 1 o'clock the court adjourned until this (Saturday) morning at 10 o'clock.

D. T. JOHNSON,

King Humbert's Proclamation.

King Humbert, I., upon ascending the Italian Throne, issued the following proclamation:

Italians: The greatest misfortune has befallen us. Victor Emmanuel, the founder of the Kingdom of Italy and its unity, has been taken from us. I received his last sigh, which was for the nation; his last wishes, which were for the happiness of his people. His voice, which will always resound in my heart, bids me banish sorrows and indicates my duty at this moment. There is only one consolation possible, namely, to show ourselves worthy of him—I by following in his footsteps and you by remaining devoted to those civic virtues by the aid of which he accomplished the difficult task of rendering Italy great and united. I shall be mindful of his grand example of devotion to country, love of progress, and faith in liberal institutions, which are the pride of my house. My sole ambition will be to deserve the love of my people.

Italians—Your first King is dead. His successor will prove to you that institutions do not die. Let us unite in this honor of great sorrow. Let us strengthen that concord which has always been the salvation of Italy.

Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures catarrh by its mild, soothing, cleansing, and healing properties. Each package prepares one pint of the Remedy ready for use, and costs only fifty cents. Sold by druggists.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

A Gentle Hint.

In our style of climate, with its sudden changes of temperature—rain, wind and sunshine often intermingled in a single day—it is no wonder that our children, friends and relatives are so frequently taken from us by neglected colds, half the deaths resulting directly from this cause. A bottle of Boschee's German Syrup kept about your home for immediate use will prevent serious sickness, a large doctor's bill, and perhaps death, by the use of three or four doses. For curing Consumption, Hemorrhages, Pneumonia, Severe Coughs, Croup or any disease of the Throat or Lungs, its success is simply wonderful, as your druggist will tell you. German Syrup is now sold in every town and village on this continent. Sample bottles for trial, 10c.; regular size, 75c.

Whenever and Wherever.

Diseases of a choleraic type prevail, or there is cause to apprehend a visit from them, the system should be toned, regulated and reinforced by a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Perfect digestion and a regular habit of body are the best safeguards against such maladies, and both are secured by this inestimable tonic and alterative. The Bitters are also extremely serviceable in remedying such disorders. If promptly taken in bilious colic, diarrhœa and cholera morbus, the disease is usually frustrated. In diarrhœa cases, it is only necessary to restore the tone of the relaxed bowels, and this is one of the specific effects of this medicine. Wind on the stomach, heartburn, biliousness, pain, headache and other symptoms of disturbance in the gastric and hepatic regions are also speedily relieved by this excellent remedy. As a family medicine it is invaluable, since it promptly and completely remedies those ailments which are of most frequent occurrence.
